Hudson River Patriots Alliance Expands Support for Veterans and Civic Life Across the Hudson Valley

RED HOOK, N.Y. — Hudson River Patriots Alliance, Inc. (HRPA), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit founded in 2025, is strengthening support for veterans, active-duty military personnel, and their families while building civic engagement and community connection throughout the Hudson Valley.

As a companion organization to Red Hook Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 7765, HRPA raises funds, pursues grants, and develops programs that respond to veteran needs and benefit the broader community. The organization works in partnership with VFW Post 7765 and other local groups while maintaining an independent, region-wide mission.

HRPA is built on the belief that veterans and their communities are stronger together. Its purpose includes providing direct programs, financial assistance, and community-based services for veterans, active-duty personnel, and their families; encouraging volunteerism and civic participation; and preserving the military and historical traditions of the Hudson River Valley.

Unlike organizations limited to veteran membership, HRPA welcomes adults age 18 and older who share a commitment to patriotism, service, and community belonging. Veterans, family members, and other community members can participate through membership, volunteering, donations, and support for local initiatives.

“Through HRPA, we are extending the long-standing community support of Red Hook VFW Post 7765 across a wider network of people, organizations, and communities,” the organization stated. “By bringing together veterans and neighbors who value service, we can strengthen assistance for those who have served while building a more connected Hudson Valley.”

Members may contribute their time and skills to support veterans, preserve their history, and honor fallen service members. Tax-deductible donations help HRPA advance its charitable programs and pursue resources for the people and communities it serves.

Annual HRPA membership is available for a $50 donation. Life memberships are available at $400 for active or former military personnel, $400 for individuals age 65 or older, and $700 for all others.

Membership privileges include use of the VFW bar/canteen, member pricing for special events, and member pricing for golf simulator use.
